commercial loan servicing authorization to communicate to a third party

A third party is a person or persons other than those listed on your loan documents. It is CHFA's policy to require a completed Authorization to Communicate to a Third Party form in order to release information about your loan to any third party. CHFA will only release information to third parties authorized and identified by this form.

We, the undersigned Borrowers, request and authorize Colorado Housing and Finance Authority (CHFA), its employees and agents, to communicate information concerning our loan to the following third party/parties:
