resources, education, & assistance for colorado housing

The chfareach membership and training program is a statewide cost effective educational tool that stabilizes and enriches your affordable housing community. Check out the reverse side for fourth quarter classes!

member benefits

Chfareach membership supports all multifamily property staff members—owners, managers, and site staff—by providing up-to-date information and education about the affordable housing industry.

As a member property, all of your staff can access:

- Priority member registration over nonmembers,
- Opportunities to network with your peers,
- Unlimited access to 100 or more in-person and online chfareach classes every year, and
- Discounted prices for certification classes.

- Compliance
- Communication skills
- Fair Housing law
- Green initiatives and incentives
- Maintenance
- Professional development
- Resident services
