chfa's 2019 community report

CHFA's 2019 Community Report is now available. Please click here to view the report.

Highlights from the report include that in 2019, CHFA:

- Served more than 10,000 customers with home mortgage or refinance loans

The most special thing about having a home is who you share it with. I'm very thankful for CHFA. I appreciate that you helped not just us but that you help so many others.

-Heidi, CHFA homeowner in Colorado Springs

- Supported the development or preservation of more than 5,600 affordable rental housing units with loans and/or by awarding affordable housing tax credits

I have made friends with neighbors and we get together frequently...being able to live in my apartment and afford it has impacted me the most.

-Dorothy, resident of The Highlands, an affordable rental housing development supported by CHFA in Grand Junction

- Impacted over 5,000 jobs by supporting more than 600 organizations with business finance programs

We're super excited about the future, and this expansion is giving us the capacity to continue growing.

-Scott, CEO of TruStile Doors, LLC, a CHFA business finance customer in Denver
