Grief and Bereavement: The Shrinking World of the Elderly, Webinar | November 3, 2020

As the population ages and the numbers of adults over the age of 55 increases, caregivers are faced with unique challenges. The impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic have led to an increase in grief and loss experiences. This presentation will focus on understanding the "shrinking" world of the elderly. The presentation will include a glimpse into the theory behind how we experience loss, grief, and bereavement. The training leads us to an understanding that the process of grief and bereavement is unique to each individual. Learn more and register here.

Fair Housing and Sexual Harassment, Webinar | November 10, 2020

The Federal Fair Housing Act (FHA) protects tenants and housing applicants from harassing conduct that is based upon one's membership in a protected class. This training course will cover Fair Housing with an emphasis on sexual harassment. Learn more and register here.
